

Gerald L. Witherington
Associate – CIP / Process Specialist

Education:

- Gerald Witherington received his degree in Engineering Technology from Memphis State University.

Background:

- Gerald has over 20 years experience in the food industry in the areas of Cleaning Systems, Sanitation Systems, and Chemicals.

Areas of Expertise:

- CIP Systems
- Sanitation Programs
- Employee Training
- Process Troubleshooting
- Project & Interim Maintenance
- Mechanical Repair
- Electrical Troubleshooting
- Preventative Maintenance Programs

Experience/Accomplishments:

Gerald's accomplishments include initiating the Field Representative program for BASF Wyandotte. The function of which, was the support of the Customer and Field Chemical Sales Force in the application, control and proper handling of various Chemical Products utilized in Plant Cleaning and Sanitation. He is experienced in installation and troubleshooting of Chemical Feed Systems, CIP Systems, High Pressure Cleaning Systems, and Plant Sanitation Systems. In addition, Gerald has been responsible for the maintenance and upkeep of Plant Processing and Utility Equipment to include: Fillers, Casers, Stackers, Refrigeration, Pneumatics, and Steam. He has also been involved in Designing, installing, and controlling Pasteurize and Raw CIP Systems, Pasteurize Lines and Tanks Separation, Pasteurize Process Panel Modifications, Raw Storage Modifications, Complete Blending Operation, Process and CIP Flow Charting and Electrical Schematics.